

Make Your Own Pigment!

Nathan Hayden uses natural pigments to create his colorful painted felts. You can make your own pigment or dye by using materials you find in and outside of your house. You can use coffee, tea, berries, flowers, or onion skins. Heat in a pot without boiling with water and some vinegar and salt until you get the color you want. Use to add color to paper and fabric.

Above left-right: Nathan Hayden, Pray to the Shadows, 2016. Disco Dream Dealer, 2015-2016.