KMAC MUSEUM

For Immediate Release:

KMAC Couture Artist Submissions Open

KMAC Museum Opens Design Submission Through December

September 4, 2018

KMAC Museum announced today that they are now accepting designs for KMAC Couture 2019. September 4th through December 7th, artists and designers are invited to submit their designs for consideration.

Design submissions should include: artist bio; CV; design sketch; list of materials to be used; description of the technique to be used in fabrication; at least one paragraph relating to the KMAC Couture 2019 Curatorial Statement; and photos of previous work. All instructions and links to provide submissions can be found at kmacmuseum.org/kmac-couture-submissions.

KMAC Couture is a wearable art runway show presented by KMAC Museum. It is the signature fundraiser for KMAC Museum that provides funding for the museum's educational programs and exhibits. This event offers a unique way to experience art and fashion. KMAC Couture features and supports emerging and established artists, costumers, designers, and milliners through the extraordinary presentation of original couture pieces of wearable art and conceptual fashion designs. KMAC Couture 2019 will be held on April 20, 2019.

For more information or to schedule interviews, please contact Maddie Tong, Communications Manager, at maddie@kmacmuseum.org.

About KMAC Museum (kmacmuseum.org)

KMAC Museum is a contemporary art museum located in historic downtown Louisville on "Museum Row." KMAC Museum's goal is to educate and inspire while promoting a better understanding of art through exhibitions, education, and collections.

The Museum explores the relationship between art and craft by identifying art as the big idea and craft as the intersection between process, materials, and labor. The museum connects people to art and creative practice.
